

CSIR International Convention Centre by Gautrain

You can commute to the CSIR International Convention Centre (CSIR ICC) using the Gautrain! The Gautrain Lynnwood bus (H11), which departs from the Gautrain Hatfield Station, stops at the CSIR ICC. The bus also passes the City Lodge Lynnwood situated at the Lynnwood Bridge shopping Centre and can therefore also be used to travel between the hotel and the CSIR ICC.

NOTE: Gautrain Gold cards are available at all Gautrain stations and cost: R19

Gautrain Routes

Hatfield station to CSIR ICC
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Cost of bus trip for rail users: R10 Cost of bus trip for non rail users: R23 Travel to Hatfield Station from any station on the Gautrain route (see website for train fares) Disembark from train at Hatfield Station and board the H2 Lynnwood Gautrain Bus Disembark from bus at H2-11 CSIR International Convention Centre
OR Tambo International Airport to CSIR ICC
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Cost of trip one way including bus fare: R229 Cost of return trip including bus fare: R435 At OR Tambo Station board the train to Sandton via Malboro Station Disembark at Malboro Station and board the train to Hatfield Station Disembark At Hatfield Station and board the H2 Lynnwood Gautrain Bus Disembark from bus at H2-11 CSIR International Convention Centre

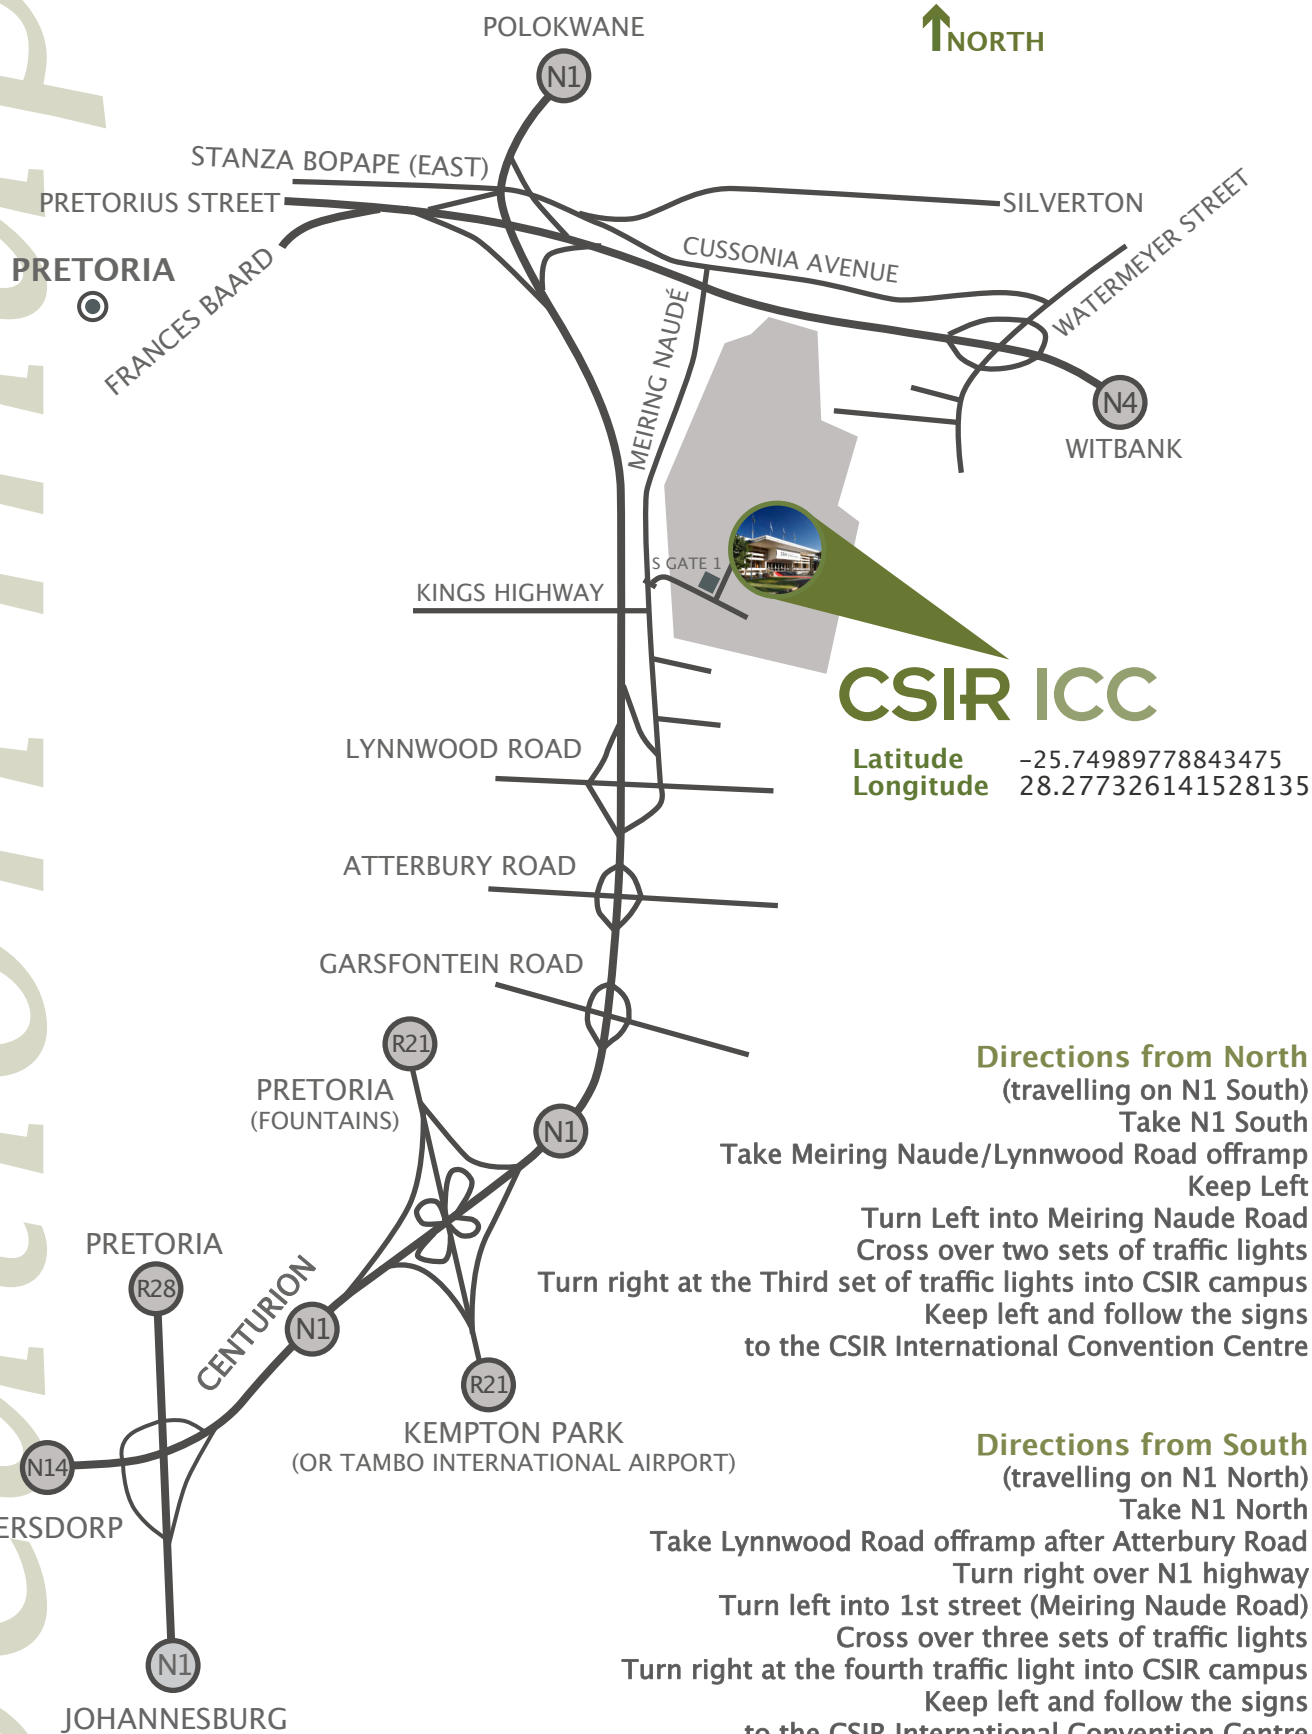

Taxi services

In the event that you prefer a taxi service for your commute, the following taxi services are available in Tshwane/Pretoria:

- SACAB – 08611 SACAB (08611 72222)
- Rixi Taxi – 012 632 6262
- Kwathlano Cab Transfers – 012 430 6465

here we go...

CSIR International Convention Centre
naturally hospitable • globally accessible